

HMA honored as Air Conservationist of the Year

September 8, 2014

HMA has been awarded the Alabama Wildlife Federation 2014 Governor's Conservation Achievement Award as Air Conservationist of the Year.

A new fluidized-bed carbon adsorption (FBC) system was installed to capture and destroy VOCs from certain painting processes.

This award was presented to HMA in recognition of the company's efforts to significantly reduce emissions.